Dear Admiral Turner:-

Mrs. Marguerite McKinley, who is at home ill at the present time, has just called, asking me to convey to you her congratulations and best wishes. She is so pleased to learn of your appointment as Director of the Central Intelligence Agency.

She mentioned also that she has in mind three houses which might be suitable for you in the Washington area! At such time as it may be convenient for you to contact her, I'm sure she would be most appreciative.

Sincerely yours,

Mildred S. Massett
